Be the best advocate you can be for your child. The dyslexia handbook is available to download on the International Dyslexia association webpage. It is a helpful resource which outlines the rights of a student with dyslexia. It can also help guide parents and teachers in creating the best educational plan for their student. Be sure to check it out under the families tab on the National Dyslexia Association website at <https://dyslexiaida.org>.

Noteworthy November News

Thank you to all who participated in our Dyslexia Awareness Month activities. We enjoyed seeing classes participate in the Dyslexia Awareness QR Code Scavenger Hunt. Congratulations to our winners Mrs. Villasenor's class, Mrs. Dent's class, Mrs. Moreno's class, and Ms. Herrera's class!

While Dyslexia Awareness Month takes place in October it is our goal at Dolores Huerta Elementary to spread awareness all year long. We hope teachers enjoy these gifts of appreciation for helping us reach this goal.
